Which of the following Retired and Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP) opportunities appeal to you?
Please check all of the opportunities of interest to you.

☐ Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA): Receive training and become certified to aid low income individuals in filing their taxes for free. Your service will help clients maintain financial security and ensure they receive the proper tax return.

☐ Community Gardens: Increase food security in our community via improving access to healthy foods. Garden volunteers will help maintain community garden plots, harvest produce to be donated, and teach gardening skills to the community.

☐ Financial Literacy Coaching: Receive training to become a financial literacy mentor. Upon completion of training, meet individually and in small groups with people seeking financial guidance (i.e. budgeting, bill paying, banking, accessing financial services, etc.).

☐ Home Repair and Weatherization: Aid high need families by improving the quality of their living conditions. Volunteers will participate in basic home weatherization practices, such as caulking around windows and doors, sealing windows with plastic for winter, and replacing windows and doors. Volunteers with specialized skills may also aid with additional home improvements and repairs (i.e. fixing a handicap ramp, reinforcing a deck/porch, painting, etc.).

☐ Care Initiatives Hospice: Provide one-on-one companionship for patients and families. Volunteers may read to the patient, play games, write letters, help with crafts, etc.

☐ American Gothic House: Greet guests, take photographs, provide museum operation support, provide tour of museum and house, etc.

☐ Milestones: Help share vital information on health care through SHIP (Senior Health Insurance Information Program) or protect people from medical fraud and abuse with the SMP (Senior Medical Portal).
